However, I have tried more difficult remedies, the side effects far outweigh the overall medicinal benefit. I received Tranquilene yesterday and took only several pills. I feel calmer, more positive and much better. I did 5 hours of online research when I found Tranquilene, made the call immediately. As a child custody lawyer, I can get very involved in my work and have a tendency to take my cases home with me. Day after day I help dozens of children get out of difficult and sometimes abusive situations. And boy, I care about the little ones. The stress of my job was affecting my family life because I couldn't relax and my husband said I was too distracted, always stirring. So a friend gave me to Tranquilene. This helped me find the balanced and calm mind I need to dedicate to my family at home.* –Janice S. Charlotte, NC Simply amazing. It all started on a beautiful sunny day when I was 26. I was driving to the mall to pick up my girlfriend at work so suddenly my arms went numb my mind started to stick, saying I was dying. I stopped my truck crawling and lay on the grass waiting for someone to stop to save me. My heart beating out of my chest, sweat was coming out of me, my arms and jaw were locked. No one stopped. Your product has done a lot for me. I never thought an herbal pill would work so well.* -Phil D., Austin TX All along it was just an imbalance. I thought for years that something was wrong with my genes, or wrong with my mind or, well, wrong with me. But when I started doing research on what makes people [so stressed] I suspected it might just be a chemical imbalance. Your product had the best combination of ingredients I could find and now, after just a few months of taking, I realized I was right.* – Stephani B, Salem OR Great product!! I'm sure you've heard this a zillion times, but thanks for creating a great product. I have a lot of stress, but I didn't believe my therapist when she told me I had a disorder and had to take medication. I just felt so stressed for a few years so I figured it couldn't just be who I am. Anyway, my therapist said I should take supplements to build GABA and Serotonin and I was so surprised that those are exactly the things tranquilene focuses on. Now I'm taking a break from therapy.* – Lana J., Salt Lake City, UT Helps Me Not Worry About The Little Growing Things, I've always been a little more skittish than others. I'm a rule follower and if the plans don't go according to the itinerary I'd feel like everything was falling apart. I grew up with it when I was growing up, but I started to worry about all kinds of little things. What meals i would eat this week, how much i'm spending at Starbucks, my house is clean enough for the bf... I'm always going to think about these things, but I certainly don't need to panic about it. Tranquilene took all the things that worries me and made just what I think. No heartbeat on this!* – Pamela K, Kittery ME My only regret is not finding it before you don't know how many medications and supplements I tried before finding Tranquilene. For some strange reason, it gives me balance and keeps me and collected.* – Tanya R., Montana By Tranquility Labs LLC List price: $42.50 Sale price: $34.95 per month & ships within 24 hours Availability: In stock Contains: 60 capsules - 30 days supply Delivered: Every 30 days Warranty: 60 days full refund guarantee.
